Projects

UMC hospital, Mini-ECG-App

First semester 2022

With a project group from my university we have developed an app used to make live ECG recordings using the following technologies and tools:

- Flutter
- Dart
- Figma
- Git

University of applied sciences, Other educational projects

2020- 2022

Since the beginning of my study we have worked on several projects. Within these projects we developed websites and applications like Blackjack and the game Wordle. We learned how to make flexible and maintainable applications and how to work agile and with scrum.
